

Professional Development

CONSULTATION

We are available to help you develop a school improvement plan through character education. Our experienced consultants can work with your team to create a plan that meets the unique needs of your school. This process includes: needs assessment, identification of goals and strategies, annual student character assessments, professional development, parent engagement, and community support. In addition, a Changing Lives consultant will work with your school during each phase of implementation in order to maximize your effectiveness.

Starting at $3,500 plus expenses

IN-SERVICE TRAINING

Changing Lives will provide your entire staff with a series of professional development activities that will explain why and how the program works and how it can be embedded and infused in your school.

Additionally, we are available to meet with students, parents, and community leaders to explain the Changing Lives program.

Starting at $3,500 per day, plus expenses

CUSTOM WEBSITE

Once your journey begins, we will continue our support to your school! We will work with your team to develop a website unique to your school or district. The website will provide ongoing training, services, and examples of the latest research and best practices in school improvement through character development.

$500 annually

NATIONAL LEADERSHIP TRAINING SEMINAR

An annual "train-the-trainer" event

Our goal is to send you back to your school with every tool you need to embed Changing Lives into your existing curriculum and infuse it throughout your school.

AGENDA:

- Why character education is so critical today
- How Changing Lives results in a change in the culture and climate of your school, transforming the learning environment for each student
- How to implement the program in 15 minutes per day with minimal teacher preparation
- What it means to embed and infuse character education throughout your school
- Consider the perfect scenario for your school
- Community and parental involvement
- Practice a lesson to experience how easy it is to teach
- Brainstorm ideas of how to implement
